

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Summary of the BSA Code of Conduct

A summary of the BSA Code of Conduct includes the following provisions:

Boy Scouts of America employees and members of the National Executive Board and Advisory Council must:

- Be honest and ethical in their conduct, including ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional/business relationships.
- Comply with applicable government laws and BSA rules and regulations.
- Maintain the confidentiality of information entrusted to them by the BSA, its vendors, and its members except when authorized or otherwise legally obligated to disclose the information.
- Deal fairly with BSA suppliers, competitors, volunteers, employees, and local council employees.
- Provide information that is accurate, completely objective, relevant, timely, and understandable.
- Proactively promote ethical behavior as a responsible employee in the work environment.
- Protect and ensure the proper use of company assets.
- Prohibit improper or fraudulent influence over any external auditor.

Follow this link to see the complete Code of Conduct.