OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Welcome to our EthicsPoint homepage, a tool that will allow for employees and people of the Diocese, our parishes, schools and institutions to confidentially report suspicion of misconduct or financial malfeasance that would then allow for an independent inquiry. The Diocese of Metuchen is committed to be transparent and forthright in the protocols and policies that help ensure integrity on every level of our diocesan life.

These measures are all meant to be proactive steps to ensure that our entire Diocesan family functions in a healthy and wholesome way in order to be responsible with the welfare of each individual and the general financial stewardship entrusted to the mission of our local Church.

EthicsPoint is owned and operated by NAVEX Global, an independent third party company providing administration for the financial misconduct hotline. Reports may be filed via the web by selecting an organization type and location on this web page or by calling one of the EthicsPoint's trained specialists toll free at: 844-796-1296.

I pray that this tool will serve as a reminder as to how we are called to responsibly cultivate the life, mission, and work of our local Church, proclaiming our faith by our own credible witness to love, healing, unity and charity.

With renewed best wishes, I remain

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen
