

Data Privacy Policy

You are aware that:

1. All information being provided by you on this portal will be used for the purpose of (i) identifying you; (ii) recording your response; and (iii) assisting you with the queries raised, whenever required.
2. All information being shared by you on this portal may be shared internally and with your employer on a need-to-know basis and we may retain such information for the purpose of identifying you in terms of our internal data retention policy for assistants and delivery associates.

You hereby provide your consent to procure, access, store, transfer, share information provided on this portal for the purpose and in the manner specified hereinabove.

If you do not want to provide the information or do not want your information to be used as specified above, please abort using this portal and any services provided herein immediately.