

Communicating with Compliance and Ethics

Every team member is responsible for promptly reporting any potential violations of laws, regulations, Baptist Health's Code of Conduct, or its policies and procedures. Communicating is a confidential, risk-free and effective method for obtaining guidance and properly reporting concerns.

Concerns Include:

- Breaches of protected health information
- Bribes and kickbacks
- Confidentiality intrusions
- Conflicts of interest
- Copyright infringement
- Discrimination or discriminatory practices
- Fraud, waste and abuse
- Fraudulent billing
- Improper gifts
- Patient rights abuses
- Professional standards infringements
- Research misconduct
